YOUR RESIDUARY ESTATE

Where you are married, or living with a partner, it is usual for your Wills to be “mirror images” when dealing with the Residue to ensure that all beneficiaries inherit, particularly if you were to die together. It is common for an Estate to be left to a surviving spouse or partner and on the second death to any surviving children. You may also consider making a third level of bequests (e.g to parents, brothers, sisters etc.) in the event of you all dying.

28. Please tick the appropriate box from the statements made below:

A. On the first death we wish the Estate to pass to the survivor of us. If he or she does not survive then we wish the Estate to pass to our child or children named below.

NOTE: It is possible that your family may increase, we would advise that your Will should refer to “my child or children” which will avoid you having to make a new Will in these circumstances. If this is appropriate to you please tick here

Alternatively, you should give full names of your child or children below
